FORT BENNING – Col. David E. Fulbright will assume command of the 14th Combat Support Hospital from Col. Jeffrey D. Haun during a change of command ceremony at 10 a.m. May 22 at Fort Benning's Freedom Hall.

A former navy corpsman, Fulbright left the Navy to attend Central State University in Edmond Okla., where he earned his commission as a second lieutenant through the Army Reserve Officer Training Corps program. His most recent assignment was as the 47th Combat Support Hospital chief of staff in Mosul, Iraq.

He and his wife, Beverly, have three children.

Haun has been reassigned to Fort Sam Houston, Texas, where he will serve as chief of the Leader Training Center there.

The 14th Combat Support Hospital is a combat support unit, highly mobile and equipped to set up and care for up to 248 casualties. The unit returned from a yearlong deployment at Bagram Air Base, Afghanistan, earlier this year.

Media wishing to attend this ceremony will meet Public Affairs at the I-185 entrance to Fort Benning at 9:20 a.m. Please call (706) 545-4591 to confirm your attendance. After duty hours, call 575-8318.
